New York, July 01 (QNA) – The State of Qatar renewed its firm commitment to the spirit and letter of the United Nations Charter, affirming its commitment to the UN continuing its role as a forum for dialogue and unity in the contemporary world.

This came in a statement delivered by HE Permanent Representative of the State of Qatar to the United Nations Sheikha Alya Ahmed bin Saif Al-Thani before the meeting held by the UN General Assembly on the occasion of the 80th anniversary of the signing of the United Nations Charter, in New York.

Her Excellency explained that the 80th anniversary of the signing of the UN Charter represents an important moment for unifying efforts to maintain international peace and security and promote economic and social progress for all people.

HE Permanent Representative stressed that the UN's role has become more important and urgent, as the world today faces the largest number of conflicts since 1945. Her Excellency noted that the State of Qatar has always defended the centrality of international law, the principles of the Charter, the peaceful resolution of disputes, and respect for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of states.
