

Hearing, Speech impaired AJK Special student secures distinction doing graduation in Grade _ A from Faisalabad university

Published on August 6, 2025

Document Date: Tue, Feb 10 2026 11:07:18 pm

Category: ,English,Kashmir - ~ ,Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

rki.news

Altaf Hamid Rao

MIRPUR (AJK); August 6 : A hearing and speech impaired special student from AJK's Kashmir Institute of Special Education (KISE) Ms. Tayyaba Majeed secured distinction as she successfully completed her Bachelor of Arts degree program studies in Grade – A from the University of Faisalabad bringing glory to Azad Jammu Kashmir, it was officially said.

According to details, Tayyaba Majeed, a student of Kashmir Institute of Special Education (KISE), a free education institution for deaf and hard of hearing students and students, which used to communicate in sign language, functioning in Mirpur AJK under the auspices of Ansari Welfare Trust.

The special child student passed the annual BA examination from Government University College Faisalabad with distinction, KISE Director Dr. Amjad Ansari, told our Special Jammu Kashmir state Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao here on Wednesday.

According to KISE Director Dr. Amjad Ansari, Tayyaba Majeed, a resident of Nakiyal district, who has been studying at KISE for a long time, passed her all her previous exams in Grade A Plus in Matriculation and FA and by passing BA with distinction.

“The distinguished special student has given the message that if special people get proper guidance, they can succeed in every exam of life. Dr. Amjad Ansari said that Tayyaba Majeed was the first student of KISE to pass the BA examination from the He added that due to the lack of graduation facilities for deaf and hard of hearing students at Azad Kashmir University, we have to send these special students to Punjab and in other provinces for the higher studies.

He further said that before this, four students of KISE have completed their BA education from Federal Urdu University and the biggest problem in Azad Jammi Kashmir stands in providing employment to special students after completion of their professional

Dr. Ansari suggested to Azad Kashmir government that the special students should be provided with respectable employment besides higher studies in various professional disciplines in the public sector universities located in AJK.

. Ansari Welfare Trust Chairman Dr. Muhammad Yasin, Basharat Shaheen, Trust President Mirza Wajahat Baig, other executive members of the trust, besides former Chairman of Azad Kashmir Education Board Professor Shaida Munir Jaral, political and social leaders and members of civil society have, meanwhile. congratulated special student Tayyaba Majeed, her teachers and parents.

KISE, it may be added, was established in 2001, where free education impasse being provided to hundreds of special hearing and speech impaired students through communication in in sign language.

Special students of KISE, it may also be mentioned here, have brought glory to Azad Jammu Kashmir by winning gold medals abroad, not only in the field of education but also in sports, the KISE Director concluded