Doha, Qatar – Mr. M. I. Farid, Founder Convenor of Qatar Talks, Ms. Lornalyn Tallod, Chief

Coordinator, and Mr. Haroon Rashid Qureshi, Media Coordinator, recently met H.E. Dr. Mustafa

Göksu, Ambassador of the Turkish Embassy in Doha, to invite and highlight the role of THE QATAR

TALKS.

This year marks the 20th milestone of Qatar Talks, making the occasion particularly special.

During the meeting, the delegation formally invited Ambassador Göksu to attend the grand finale of Qatar Talks, scheduled for 5th December 2025. The discussion focused on collaboration and strengthening ties between Qatar Talks and the Turkish Embassy in Qatar.

The guests were warmly welcomed and honored with a traditional Turkish breakfast, leaving a lasting impression of hospitality and goodwill. Ambassador Göksu expressed his appreciation for the invitation and conveyed his enthusiasm to participate in the upcoming celebrations.

The meeting reflected the spirit of professionalism, mutual respect, and shared commitment to fostering international friendship and cultural exchange. It highlighted the importance of collaboration between organizations and diplomatic missions, reinforcing the role of Qatar Talks as a platform for dialogue, learning, and global engagement.

Qatar Talks continues to celebrate its milestone year with an emphasis on excellence, cultural exchange, and strong international partnerships, promising an unforgettable finale event in December 2025.
