Doha, August 13 (QNA) – HE Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman bin Jassim Al-Thani, met Wednesday with HE Minister of Foreign Affairs of the sisterly Republic of Turkiye Hakan Fidan.

Both sides discussed advancing bilateral cooperation between the two countries, developments in the Gaza Strip, the occupied Palestinian territories, and Syria, as well as a variety of topics of shared interest.

HE Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs underscored the importance of ramping up regional and global efforts to end the brutal war on the Gaza Strip, ensure the unhindered and sustainable flow of humanitarian aid into the Strip, and secure the release of hostages and prisoners.

His Excellency further underscored the State of Qatar's full support for all good-faith efforts aimed at settling the Palestinian cause through peaceful means and enforcing the two-state solution.
