Doha, September 01 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani on Monday congratulated high-achieving secondary school students on their academic excellence.

In a post on His Highness' official account on social media platform X, HH the Amir extended his congratulations to the outstanding high school students on their academic excellence and the awareness they have shown in choosing priority academic disciplines that serve the country's national vision and in line with their qualifications and great scientific ambitions.
