MIRPUR (AJK): September. 5: All detailed dignified arrangements have been made across Azad

Jammu & Kashmir to celebrate Eid Milad un Nabi (PBUH), tomorrow – Saturday, September 6, with great traditional religious zeal and fervor.

The highly sanctified day of Eid Milad un Nabi (PBUH) – the Birth Day of the last Holy Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him), will dawn with special prayers at Fajr, in the mosques throughout Azad Jammu Kashmir for the upholding and flourishing of Islam and the Islamic teachings, unity, solidarity, progress and welfare of the Muslim ummah, security and stability of Pakistan and Azad Jammu & Kashmir and for the liberation all the occupied Muslim homelands including occupied Palestine and the Indian-illegally occupied Jammu & Kashmir state.

The Eid Milad-un-Nabi (PBUH) processions will be taken out and ‘Mahaafil-e-Milad’ will be held in all small and major towns and cities across Azad Jammu Kashmir to celebrate the sacred day. major ceremonies comprising ‘Mahafil-e-Milad’ will be held to celebrate the day with fullest religious devotion and respect at the capital city of Muzaffarabad as well as in Mirpur, Kotli, Bagh, Rawalakot, Palandri, Bhimber, Jhelum valley (Hattiyan Bala), Haveili and Neelam valley districts and other tehsil headquarters, towns and villages throughout the liberated territory.

Religious scholars including ulema and other speakers will pay glorious tributes to the last prophet – Hazrat Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) for His great and remarkable services for giving a right direction to the humanity through conveying and flourishing the message of Allah Almighty particularly for the Muslim ummah besides upholding of the teachings of Islam.

It will be the day of renewal of the pledge that best way for the Muslims to get rid, here and hereafter, is to strictly act upon the orders of Allah Almighty and the sayings of the Holy prophet – Muhammad (Peace be Upon Him).

The roads, streets and round-about at all small and major cities, towns and villages through AJK have been beautifully decorated with green flags and multicolor lights to mark the Jashan-e-Eid Milad un Nabi (PBUH) with deep-rooted love, respect and honour for the last Prophet – Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him). All private and public buildings have also been beautifully decorated with the colorful lights on the eve of the Eid Milad un Nabi (PBUH).

In Mirpur various Eid Milad un Nabi (PBUH) processions and rallies will be taken out from various parts of the city and other parts of the district, which will be the hallmark of the sacred day. All the processions will later join the main procession to be taken out from Markazi Jamia Mosque Allama Iqbal Road under the auspices of Markazi Milad un Nabi (PBUH) Committee, Mirpur at 9.00 in the morning, Chairman Markazi Milad Committee Mirpur told reporters on Thursday while unveiling the Eid Milad un Nabi programs in the district.

A large number of people from all walks of life will join the procession to celebrate the birth day of Sarwar-e-Konain, Hatim-un-Nabaeen Hazrat Muhammad Mustafa (PBUH) with full religious enthusiasm and devotion. Ulema and scholars will address the participants of the Milad processions at various places on the route of the Milaad procession to pay glorious tributes to the Hazrat Muhammad Mustafa (PBUH).

Sabeels of cold milk and soft drinks will be set up by various organizations along the entire routes of the Milaad processions in the city and rest of the district. Cooked food will be distributed among the people including poor, orphans and down trodden to mark the jubilation over the sacred day of Eid Milad un nabi (PBUH).

All AJK cities including Mirpur city are giving exceptionally beautiful look after streets and roads including bazars and shopping centers have been beautifully decorated with lights and banners bearing the writings about celebration of the birth Day of the Holy Prophet – Muhammad (PBUH).
