Sohni Dharti Forum is a prominent social platform for the Pakistani community residing in Al-Khor, Qatar. It organizes a variety of programs for community members, ranging from Pakistan National Day events to religious programs such as Seerat Un Nabi and Faizan-e-Ramadan. Additionally, the forum hosts various sports events, including football, cricket, volleyball, and other indoor games for kids and employees. Besides, Sohn Dharti Forum organizes Mango Festival, Spring Festival, and Eid bazaars, engaging members of other communities to promote a positive image of Pakistan among different nationalities.

Sohni Dharti Forum unanimously elected Mr. Anwar Ali Rana as its new chairman for the term 2024-2025. He previously served in the same position last year and will continue to hold the title. Mr. Rana, a poet, writer, and social worker, brings with him vast experience that makes him well-suited for the post. His knowledge, decisiveness, and resilience make him the ideal candidate for effective leadership
