MIRPUR (AJK): September 27: Four-day International Shin Kyokushin Kai Karate Championship commenced in Russian city of Novosibirsk from September 26 to 29, where world-renowned fighters will demonstrate their skills, it was officially said.

Representing Pakistan at this prestigious event renowned martial artist from Mirpur, Azad Kashmir—Muhammad Adeel Raja will show his high skills at the 33rd Andrei Yakutov Memorial Shin Kyokushin Kai Karate Championship, says a press release issued here late Friday.

“This event is considered one of the most significant global tournaments in the world of Shin Kyokushin Kai Karate, where top fighters from across the globe demonstrate their martial arts techniques and abilities. The championship will take place at the Lokomotiv Arena in Novosibirsk, with thousands of spectators expected to attend”, it said

The local lad Muhammad Adeel Raja is among the few Pakistani athletes who have earned international recognition through sheer hard work, dedication, and exceptional performance. He has previously won multiple medals in various international events, showcasing his outstanding talent”, according to the PR.

While speaking to the media here before his departure, Muhammad Adeel Raja said, “The Andrei Yakutov Memorial Championship is a prestigious and remarkable event in the world of Shin Kyokushin Kai Karate. I have prepared thoroughly for this, and Allah Almighty willing, I am determined to win a gold medal for Pakistan this time as well.”

According to sports experts, the 33rd memorial tournament will feature strong participation from fighters across Asia, Europe, and Africa, making the competition highly intense and thrilling. In such a scenario, the inclusion of a determined and experienced fighter like Muhammad Adeel Raja is a great honor for Pakistan.

Muhammad Adeel Raja's international achievements stand as a testament to the fact that he is not just a skilled athlete, but a shining beacon for the promotion of Shin Kyokushin Kai Karate in Pakistan. Martial arts enthusiasts across the country are praying for his success and are hopeful that he will return from Russia with another golden victory for Pakistan.
