Ankara, October 01 (QNA)– Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said the Gaza Strip is exhausted from the bloodshed, tears, and devastation caused by the Israeli occupation's genocide against the Palestinians. He stressed that the disgrace of this genocide must end immediately. The parliament expressed a powerful reaction to the Gaza genocide, and the state terror Israel is practicing in the region, Erdogan added during his participation in the opening legislative session of the Turkish Parliament.

Erdogan further stressed that he will continue to boldly defend Palestine and the first Qibla, Al-Quds Al-Sharif, until the last breath.

Turkiye will persist in its struggle until an independent, sovereign, and geographically integrated Palestinian state is created on the 1967 borders, with East Jerusalem as its capital, Erdogan emphasized.

He underlined that it behooves the Islamic world first, and the international community second, to achieve enduring peace for the Palestinians in the Gaza Strip.
