MIRPUR (AJK): Oct. 15: District Administration tip officials including Deputy Commissioner Yasir

Riaz, District Health Officer Dr. Fida Hussain Raja, SSP Khurram Iqbal and Additional Deputy

Commissioner General Raja Umar Tariq Khan, Wednesday visited the field to review the arrangements and progress about the ongoing national 04-day anti-polio campaign in Mirpur district.

They inquired about the performance and record of vaccination of children by the mobile polio teams besides at the fixed centers.

The polio teams told the Deputy Commissioner that the public was fully cooperating with the teams during the polio campaign and none of the polio teams have faced any problems so far.

Deputy Commissioner Yasir Riaz praised the performance of the polio teams and said that they should achieve 100 percent targets of vaccination during the campaign.

The DC advised the stakeholders to immediately inform the DHO if they face any problem during the drive of immunization, ending on Thursday – October 16.
