MIRPUR (AJK): Oct. 27: Protest rallies warn world of the unending global war if the much-delayed unresolved internationally acknowledged issue of Kashmir was not peacefully settled immediately, on the eve of the Black day observed at both sides of the LoC in internationally acknowledged disputed Jammu & Kashmir State on Monday – October 27.

Our Special Jammu Kashmir state Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao reports from Mirpur that Jammu & Kashmir people inhabiting both sides of the line of control – AJK and IIOJK, besides rest of the world observed black day on Monday – October 27 to mark strong protest and indignation against the continual forced and unlawful occupation of Jammu & Kashmir state for the last 78 years since this darkest day of 1947 in the history of Jammu Kashmir state.

People of the internationally-acknowledged dispute Himalayan state of Jammu & Kashmir living either side of the LoC treat the day of October 27 as black day in the history of the disputed Himalayan state of Jammu & Kashmir when India had forcibly landed her armed troops against the aspirations and the wishes of the people of the state.

The day is observed as black day by Jammu & Kashmir people every year to mark extreme resentment and indignation over the continued unlawful and forcible occupation of bulk of Jammu Kashmir state by the Indian tyrannical forces. India had landed her armed military troops in Srinagar this day 78 years ago on October 27, 1947 contrary to wishes of the people of the state .

It was on this day in 1947 when Indian armed troops invaded Jammu & Kashmir and occupied its bulk part absolutely against the wishes of the Jammu & Kashmir people and in the sheer violations of the partition plan of the sub-continent denying all international norms and commitments.

This year too, the black day against continual forced Indian occupation was being observed at the time when the Kashmir freedom is underway following the massive continual anti-India protests by the people of the bleeding Indian occupied state of Jammu and Kashmir for last over six years against the Indian occupational forces – since furious Kashmiris continuing protest against August 5, 2019 Indian sinister action of scrapping special status of the disputed Jammu Kashmir State abrogating article 370 and 35-A of her constitution.

The call for observance of Black day was given by the top Kashmiri leadership of the Kashmir resistance movement and All Parties Hurriyat Conference and the Azad government of the State of Jammu & Kashmir.

In Mirpur, the black day rally was staged from district court premises under the auspices of various social, political and public representative organizations with the coordination of Mirpur district administration with coordination of all representative organizations of the civil society under the leadership of their representatives including Additional Deputy Commissioner Raja Omer Tariq, APHC leader Aslam Malik, Senior Journalist Zaffar Mughal, Shakoor Mughal of Muslim Conference, office bearers of DBA Mirpur President Mahmood Palakvi President Markazi Annjuman e Tajran President District Non Gazetted technical employees organization Qaiser Shiraz Kazmi, journalists, lawyers and members of the business fraternity, social and political activists, schools and colleges students and others.

As previous the observance of the black day was aimed at to apprise the world of the Kashmiris ever-lasting severe hatred against India besides against the forced Indian occupation of their motherland for the last 78 years – besides to remind the international community and the global forums especially the United Nations to perform their due global role for the early peaceful settlement of Kashmir issue in line with international norms and commitments including the UN resolutions which clearly spoke of the grant of right to self determination through free and fair referendum in entire Jammu & Kashmir state.

Protest rallies and processions – besides public congregations in all small and major towns including district and tehsil headquarters were the hallmark of the black day in all small and major towns at either side of the Line of Control in Jammu & Kashmir state i-e Azad Jammu Kashmir and Indian Illegally occupied Jammu & Kashmir to reiterate complete dissociation from India besides to apprise the world of the continued Indian brutalities unleashed against the innocent Jammu Kashmir fighting against the forcible Indian rule and to get the motherland freed from the Indian clutches.

And in Indian illegally occupied Jammu & Kashmir, the day was marked by protest strike and anti-India demonstrations in various parts of the occupied state despite restrictions imposed by the Indian occupational forces in response to the call given by the caged Kashmiri leaders besides other leadership of the All Parties Hurriyat Conference comprising the freedom-loving Kashmiri political and other public representative parties.

The nation-wide black day call given by Pakistan government was also given by AJK government at both sides of the LoC to observe the day in the liberated territory besides across Pakistan and remaining parts of the world where Pakistanis and Kashmiris were residing in.
