MIRPUR (AJK): Nov. 2: UAE-based Overseas Pakistanis and Kashmiris Diaspora community leader Malik Muhammad Ishaq, has hailed the recent historic visits of Field Marshal General Syed Asim Munir to Egypt, Jordan, and Saudi Arabia as a magnificent example of successful military diplomacy.

He noted that during these tours, the leadership of all three countries expressed full confidence in Pakistan's Armed Forces, which he considers a source of pride for the entire nation, says a report reaching here Sunday.

Speaking to the media, late Sunday, he stated that Field Marshal General Syed Asim Munir is the best Field Marshal in the world. He highlighted that the important tours included fruitful discussions on topics such as counter-terrorism, defense cooperation, and intelligence sharing, which further strengthened the military alliance and solidarity among Muslim nations.

Ishaq asserted that due to Field Marshal General Syed Asim Munir's successful diplomatic initiatives and Pakistan's commitment to peace, stability, and military diplomacy in the region, Pakistan has emerged on the global horizon as a strong and respected nation today.

He credited the respect and dignity Pakistan has achieved worldwide to the courage, bravery, and high leadership of Field Marshal General Syed Asim Munir, after the grace of Allah Almighty. He predicted that Pakistan's role in global decision-making will become even more prominent in the future. He concluded by declaring that the entire Kashmiri nation stands shoulder-to-shoulder with the Pakistan Army, adding, "Long Live the Pakistan Army."
