MIRPUR (AJK): November 8 : Azad Jammu Kashmir Prime Minister Chaudhry Anwarul Haq late

Saturday visited the shrines of the great spiritual leader of the subcontinent Hazrat Baba Piraa

Shah Ghazi, famously known as Darmiwali Sarkar and mystic poet Rumi Kashmir, Hazrat Mian

Muhammad Bakhsh, (RA) and offered fateha besides laying flower wreaths at both the Mosoleums.

The PM Anwar-ul-Haq, was flanked by his only cainet colleague – the Minister of Communications and Public Works Chaudhry Azhar Sadiq on this occasion and prayed for the elevation of the ranks of the elders – the preachers of Islam and others from the entire muslim ummah, in heaven, Our AJK Correspondent reports from Mirpur quoting official sources on Sunday.

Prime Minister Chaudhry Anwar-ul-Haq, during his visit to Darbar Sharif, gave instructions to Deputy Commissioner Yasir Riaz and Manager Auqaf Department to provide all possible facilities and privileges to the pilgrims visiting the shrines for pilgrimage.

“Special attention should be paid to the quality of the ‘langar’ (quality cooked food for pilgrims”, he particularly advised the State Auqaf Department management. “The shrines of both the great famous departed souls of the ancient islamic history should not be made as a source of income – since pilgrims use to visit the mausoleums from far-away places to seek blessings at such spiritual centers. “No pilgrim should complain about the behavious of the staff of the shrines of the great departed personalities and preachers of Islam”, he advised.
