Gaza, November 09 (QNA) – The death toll in the Gaza Strip has risen to 69,176, the majority of whom are women and children, since the start of Israeli occupation attacks on Oct. 7, 2023, according to local medical sources.

The number of injuries has also increased, reaching 170,690, with many victims still trapped under rubble, inaccessible to rescue and medical teams.

Over the past 72 hours, Gaza hospitals have received the bodies of seven people -one newly killed and six recovered from under the debris – alongside five injured individuals.

Since the ceasefire agreement on October 11, the total reported casualties include 241 deaths and 619 injuries, with 528 bodies recovered from the rubble.
