prayer.

In a sermon after the prayer, His Eminence Sheikh Dr. Yahya Butti Al Nuaimi urged the worshippers to sincerely repent and return to Allah, reminding them to be certain that all dominion is in His hands. He pointed out that Allah the Almighty withholds rain from His servants so they may awaken from their heedlessness and remember that they are weak and powerless to bring benefit or harm to themselves except by Allah's will. He also emphasized the importance of supplication, raising hands in earnest prayer for rainfall, seeking forgiveness, and striving for piety.
