Cairo, November 13 (QNA) – The State of Qatar and Egypt held talks in Cairo on Thursday on the implementation of a memorandum of understanding aimed at boosting bilateral cooperation in legal and judicial sectors.

The meeting brought together a delegation from Qatar's Ministry of Justice led by Assistant

Undersecretary for International Agreements and Cooperation Affairs, Sheikha Hind bint Faleh

Al-Thani and HE Counselor Adnan Fanjari, Egypt's Minister of Justice.

Both sides explored ways to strengthen joint cooperation, particularly in exchanging expertise, legal training, and modernizing judicial systems.

They also held a bilateral session to discuss mechanisms for implementing the memorandum's provisions and agreed to develop a joint action plan to achieve its goals and promote greater integration in justice and legal cooperation between the two countries.
