Doha, Qatar – The entrepreneurial spirit of Bangladeshi expatriates continues to flourish in Qatar, marked by the grand opening of Fizz Ninty Restaurant on Monday evening at Old Al Ghanim,

Doha.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony was led by the restaurant's proprietor, Riazul Islam, alongside Maulana Md. Yusuf, Khatib of the Qatar Ministry of Endowments (Awqaf), and Md. Bahar Uddin, President of the Laxmipur Association in Qatar.

Prominent guests included Abdur Razzak, Supervisor at Hamad International Airport, Kamruzzaman, Manager of New Zaman Restaurant, and a large gathering of Bangladeshi expatriates, including media representatives.

Speaking at the event, attendees expressed their confidence that Fizz Ninty Restaurant will thrive in Qatar's vibrant culinary scene, highlighting the growing presence and contribution of Bangladeshi businesses in the country.

The inauguration reflects both the dedication of the expatriate community and Qatar's welcoming environment for international entrepreneurs.
