
Qatar Amir Affirms Qatar and Rwanda Moving Steadily Toward Promising Horizons of Partnership and Shared Interests

Published on November 22, 2025

Document Date: Thu, Jun 25 2026 04:36:08 am

Category: ,English,Qatar - ,Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

Kigali, November 21 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani affirmed that the State of Qatar and the Republic of Rwanda enjoy strong, evolving relations that continue to advance steadily toward promising horizons of partnership and shared interests.

In a post on His Highness’s official account on the X platform, HH the Amir highlighted his extensive discussions with HE President Paul Kagame of the Republic of Rwanda in Kigali, affirming the shared commitment to enhancing prospects for bilateral cooperation.

HH the Amir underscored that Qatar and Rwanda share firm and evolving relations, and are advancing steadily toward promising horizons of partnership and shared interests. His Highness also praised President Kagame's efforts in supporting peace efforts within his country's regional environment.