A free health service was organized in Qatar by Diganto Express Contracting and Hospitality

Company for Qatari expatriates, courtesy of Kuttis Medical. The program was held on Saturday, November 22, from 4 PM to 9 PM at the company's office in Najma, Doha.

The event was attended by Bangladesh Embassy's Labor Counselor, Mashudul Kabir, as the chief guest, while Diganto Express owner Mohammad Jasim Uddin presided over the program. Other notable attendees included the Embassy's First Secretary Md. Nasir Uddin, Dr. Anshu from Kuttis Medical, community leaders from the Bangladeshi community, and company officials.

Bangladesh Embassy's Labor Counselor Mashudul Kabir praised the initiative, highlighting its importance for the expatriate community. Event management and medical arrangements were efficiently handled by Akash Media Bhuban.
