MIRPUR (AJK): November 25 (APP): Azad Jammu Kashmir Prime Minister Faisal Mumtaz Rathore

said that the immense love and trust the people of AJK and the party workers had expressed upon his election as Prime Minister of the state was a debt he could never repay in his life.

He was addressing a congregation at Jammu Kashmir House in the federal metropolis on Tuesday which had gathered to felicitate him on his first visit to the Kashmir House after assume the charge of the office of thr State Prime Minister.

A large number of people and PPP workers, present on the occasion, raised slogans in favour of the newly elected prime minister Rathore.

Meanwhile, prime minister Rathore spent a busy day as people from different walks of life visited Kashmir House to meet and greet him.

Speaking on the occasion, Prime Minister Raja Faisal Mumtaz Rathore thanked the people and asked them to pray that Allah, the Almighty helps him discharge his duties and serve the people of Azad Kashmir.

He vowed to continue serving the people of Azad Kashmir until his last breath.

Recalling the legacy of his father and former Prime Minister Raja Mumtaz Hussain Rathore, he said, “My father always taught me that public service is the greatest form of worship.”

“I will work for the development and progress of Azad Kashmir by making his thoughts and ideas my guiding principles,” he added.

“I will work day and night to meet the expectations of the people and will make every effort to fulfil them,” he remarked.
