Doha, November 27 (QNA) – HE Director-General of Qatar News Agency (QNA) Ahmed bin Saeed

Al Rumaihi met Thursday with Chairman of Czech News Agency (CTK) Council David Soukup.

During the meeting, they reviewed aspects of joint cooperation between the two agencies and discussed ways to develop news work in a manner that contributes to exchanging expertise and expanding media coverage between Qatar and the Czech Republic.

The meeting also focused on QNA's experience in digital transformation and diverse news content, as well as mechanisms for utilizing the latest technologies in producing and publishing news.

Both sides expressed their aspiration to establish practical plans to activate cooperation between the two agencies in the coming period, in a way that achieves their shared goals in developing media work.
