Doha, Qatar – December 23, 2025: Place Vendôme, Qatar’s premier luxury shopping, lifestyle and entertainment destination, is proud to announce its restaurants and cafés have been awarded the Taste of Qatar certification, recognising outstanding quality, service and dining experiences across the mall's diverse food and beverage portfolio.

14 restaurants and cafés located at Place Vendôme received the prestigious Taste of Qatar 3-star certification during an official ceremony organised by Qatar Tourism. The programme highlights culinary excellence across the country and celebrates venues that meet the highest national standards in food quality, service, hygiene and overall guest experience.

Taste of Qatar is Qatar Tourism's official national restaurant rating and certification programme, developed to elevate culinary standards across the country. The certification is awarded following comprehensive evaluations that include mystery dining visits, service and food quality assessments, and strict hygiene and safety compliance in coordination with the Ministry of Public Health. Rated on a one-to-three-star scale, the programme recognises establishments that consistently demonstrate excellence, reinforcing Qatar's positioning as a world-class gastronomic destination.

The certified outlets span upscale dining, casual dining, premium cafés and quick-service concepts, reinforcing Place Vendôme's position as one of Qatar's leading lifestyle destinations for world-class dining, social experiences and everyday indulgence.

Carole Sabbagha, Mall Manager at Place Vendôme, commented: “Food and beverage plays a defining role in how people experience Place Vendôme. Our approach has always been to curate a diverse yet complementary mix of dining concepts that enhance the overall lifestyle destination, whether guests are visiting to shop, meet friends, spend time with family or enjoy the wider entertainment offering. This recognition from the prestigious Taste of Qatar programme reflects both the quality of our partners and our long-term commitment to delivering memorable, high-standard dining experiences as part of the Place Vendôme journey.”

The certified venues span multiple dining categories, reflecting Place Vendôme's carefully curated food and beverage portfolio, designed to complement its luxury retail, leisure and hospitality offering. In upscale dining, Kumar at Place Vendôme was recognised for its refined culinary experience, while the casual dining and quick-service category included Sushi Library, B+F, Amigos, Benihana, Oishi Sushi and Dave's Hot Chicken, alongside Adrift Anda at Le Royal Méridien Place Vendôme Lusail. Together, these concepts contribute to a dynamic, all-day dining landscape that caters to families, social gatherings and destination-led visits alike.

Place Vendôme's strong café culture was also acknowledged, with premium cafés such as Café Pouchkine, Volume Café, Crème & Butter and Maison Chaudun earning Taste of Qatar certification, reinforcing the destination's appeal as a place to meet, pause and socialise throughout the day.

Quick-service cafés, including SOHO Coffee Co. and Go-Ssip Café, were similarly recognised, supporting Place Vendôme's positioning as a lifestyle hub where high-quality dining experiences are seamlessly integrated into every visit, from morning coffee through to late-evening dining.

With an ever-evolving culinary line-up and a strong focus on quality, diversity and guest experience, Place Vendôme continues to strengthen its position as a destination where dining plays a central role in how visitors connect, socialise and enjoy the mall throughout the day and into the evening.
