Doha, Qatar: The latest edition of the Qatar Business Card Directory (QBCD), published by Doha-based advertising and event management company Mediaplus, is creating a strong buzz in the market, receiving an overwhelming response from the business community and the general public alike. Copies of QBCD have already reached many prominent personalities, business leaders, entrepreneurs, and decision-makers across Qatar, the UAE, and India, reaffirming its position as one of the most trusted and effective business networking tools.

Adding grandeur to the release and distribution of the Qatar Business Card Directory (QBCD), several leading entrepreneurs and distinguished personalities personally received copies of the directory from the Chief Editor. The esteemed recipients include Mr. Sharaf P. Hameed, CEO of City Exchange; Dr. Noushad C.K., CEO of Can International Group; Mr. Muhamed Fazeem, CEO of Hilite Builders; Mr. Nishanth Thomas, CEO of The Grand Gold and Diamonds; Dr. Tinu Tampy, CEO of Delma Ayurvedic Centre; Ms. Supriya Nair, Managing Director of Planet Ayurveda; Mr. Mathiyalakan Varadarajan, CEO of Excetra Events; Mr. Saju Viswanathan, Sales Director of Binghati; Mr. Clinton Clive, Manager, Confident Group; Mr. Shafeeq, Relationship Manager; and Mr. Haroon Rashid Qureshi, Editor-in-Chief of RKI.

Their gracious acceptance of QBCD stands as a testament to the directory's growing stature, credibility, and wide-reaching influence within Qatar's dynamic business landscape, marking yet another proud milestone in its journey as one of the nation's most trusted business networking platforms.

With its user-friendly format, premium presentation, and comprehensive coverage, QBCD continues to bridge businesses, professionals, and service providers under one powerful platform. The directory has once again proven its relevance and value in today's fast-moving business environment, where visibility and connectivity are key to growth.

Distribution of QBCD is currently in full swing, ensuring that copies reach strategic locations, corporate offices, institutions, and key stakeholders across Qatar. The enthusiastic reception from recipients highlights the credibility QBCD has built over the years as a reliable reference and a "one-stop destination" for business networking.

Published by Media Plus, QBCD has evolved into a powerful marketing and branding tool that benefits businesses of all sizes. Its growing reach and acceptance underline Media Plus's commitment to delivering quality, innovation, and value to the business community.

As distribution progresses, QBCD continues to make waves—strengthening connections, opening new opportunities, and reinforcing its reputation as Qatar's most effective business card directory.

Apart from its print edition, the directory is also available online at www.qatarcontact.com and via a mobile application.
