PERINTALMANNA: Green Jobs honoured Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara, recipient of the prestigious Global Ratna Award, for becoming the first Indian expatriate to author and publish 100 books in various languages. The honouring ceremony was held at the Green Hospitality Auditorium in the presence of dignitaries, staff members, and well-wishers.

Speaking on the occasion, Shanu, Chairman of Green Jobs, said that winning a coveted award like the Global Ratna for publishing 100 books is a remarkable and rare achievement. He expressed immense pride in associating with a personality who has made such an outstanding contribution to literature, education, and society. He also noted that Dr. Amanulla serves as the CEO of Media Plus, Doha, the associate company of Green Jobs, and that his success is a matter of great pride for the entire Green Jobs family.

Rasif, CEO of Green Jobs, joined Shanu in honouring Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara by presenting a memento and draping him with a golden shawl, symbolizing respect and recognition for his extraordinary literary and social achievements.

Welcoming the gathering, Hasna, Candidates Counsellor at Green Jobs, highlighted Dr. Amanulla's inspiring journey as an author, educator, and entrepreneur, stating that his life stands as a motivation for young professionals to pursue excellence with dedication and discipline.

In his response, Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara thanked the Green Jobs management and staff for the warm and affectionate honour. He said that recognitions like the Global Ratna Award and the felicitation by Green Jobs reaffirm his belief that consistent effort and social commitment can create meaningful impact. He also reiterated his commitment to continue working in the fields of education, language training, and community development.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Sibila Nasreen, Customer Relations Manager, Green Jobs, who expressed gratitude to the management, guests, and staff members for making the event a memorable and successful one.

The ceremony reflected Green Jobs' continued commitment to celebrating excellence and inspiring achievements that contribute positively to society, education, and cultural advancement.
