The Sohni Dharti, a prominent Pakistani forum in Qatar, brought the vibrant spirit of Pakistani culture to life with a mesmerizing evening music program that captivated a packed hall of enthusiasts. The event featured an array of talented performers who delivered soul-stirring ghazals, melodious songs, and energetic qawwali, leaving the audience enthralled.

The program was inaugurated by Anwar Ali Rana, Chairman of Sohni Dharti, who set the tone for an unforgettable night dedicated to celebrating Pakistan's rich musical heritage. Attendees were treated to standout performances, including ghazals by Tanveer Khan, whose poetic renditions evoked deep emotions. Farzana Muzammil charmed the crowd with her melodious songs, while Jamshaid Shehzad Bajwa thrilled everyone with his unique style and dynamic presence. The evening reached a high note with Akbar Khan's presentation of qawwali, infusing the atmosphere with spiritual fervor and rhythmic energy.

Among the prominent guests in attendance were Badar Sohail, Shahid Khan, Hamid Rasool, Irfan Anjum, Hafeezullah, Iqbal Butt, and Liaqat Amin Satti, who added to the event's prestige. Umar Irshad, the Cultural Secretary, praised the high level of audience engagement, noting how the interactive spirit made the program truly special.

President of Sohni Dharti, Umar Khayam, along with executive committee members Mohsin Ali, Gulzar Hussain, Ghulam Farid, and Javaid Alvi, joined a large gathering of member families to enjoy the festivities. The hall was filled to capacity, reflecting the strong community support for such cultural initiatives.

The event concluded on a delightful note with a sumptuous Pakistani dinner, featuring traditional flavors that perfectly complemented the musical feast. Organizers expressed gratitude to all participants and attendees, highlighting the program's role in fostering cultural unity and preserving artistic traditions.
