Doha, Qatar: The new edition of Spoken Arabic Tutor, authored by renowned academician, multilingual author, and Spoken Arabic expert Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara, was officially released by prominent Qatari entrepreneur and Chairman of Al Raes Group, Ahmed Al Raes, at a dignified function held in Doha recently

The first copy of the book was received by Dr. Sheela Philip, Managing Director of Doha Beauty Centre, marking the formal launch of the publication. The ceremony was further honored by the presence of several distinguished guests of honour, including Mohammed Noushad Abu, Managing Director of New Goodwill Cargo; Jose Philip, CEO of Ceprotec; Jebi K John, Managing Director of Qatar Tec; and Muhammed Maheen, Chairman of Kalapremi Daily, who extended their felicitations to the author and appreciated the initiative.

The release of the book by a leading figure of Qatar's business community highlights the growing importance of Arabic language learning among expatriates and non-native speakers living and working in the region. Ahmed Al Raes, while releasing the book, appreciated Dr. Amanulla's long-standing commitment to promoting Arabic as a bridge of communication and cultural understanding between communities. He emphasized that initiatives like these contribute significantly to social integration and professional success in Qatar and the wider Gulf region. Spoken Arabic Tutor is designed as a practical, learner-friendly guide focusing on day-to-day communication. The book adopts an innovative methodology that simplifies Arabic speaking skills through structured dialogues, commonly used expressions, pronunciation guidance, and situational conversations. It is especially useful for beginners, professionals, students, and expatriates who wish to communicate confidently in Arabic in real-life situations.

Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara is widely recognized as a pioneer in Spoken Arabic education for non-Arabs. He has conducted hundreds of Spoken Arabic training programs in Qatar and other countries and has authored more than 100 books in multiple languages, including highly popular Spoken Arabic series and textbooks for CBSE and international curricula. His contributions to Arabic language education and community development have earned him several prestigious national and international awards.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Amanulla expressed his gratitude to Ahmed Al Raes for releasing the book and to all the distinguished guests for their encouragement. He stated that the primary aim of the Spoken Arabic Tutor is to remove the fear of learning Arabic and to empower learners to use the language confidently in workplaces, marketplaces, and social settings.

The book has already been approved and recommended by several educational institutions and training centers and is expected to benefit thousands of learners seeking practical Arabic communication skills.

The release ceremony was attended by educators, community leaders, media representatives, and well-wishers, who lauded the effort as a valuable contribution to language education and multicultural harmony in Qatar.
