Bureau Chief RKI Oman (Muscat)

Pakistan Social Club Oman, in collaboration with the Embassy of Pakistan, successfully organized a soul-stirring Qawwali Night at the Open Theatre of the

The event received an overwhelming response, with an audience of over 4,000 people, making it one of the most memorable and highly attended cultural evenings in the history of Muscat Nights.

The evening was spiritually uplifting and culturally enriching, featuring mesmerizing performances by renowned Qawwals Ustad Fareed Ayaz Sahib and Janab Abu Muhammad Sahib, along with their brothers, whose magical renditions of classical Qawwali kept the audience captivated throughout the program.

The performance created an atmosphere filled with devotion, harmony, and cultural pride. Twith continuous applause and appreciation from the audience.

Pakistan Social Club Oman extends its sincere appreciation to the Management of Muscat Nights, especially Dr. Eng. Nasser Salim Al Sadi and his dedicated team, for providing the esteemed platform to showcase Pakistan's rich spiritual and cultural heritage at Oman's premier cultural festival. Their cooperation, professionalism, and support were instrumental in the flawless execution of the event.

The success of this grand evening was made possible through the tireless efforts and dedicated teamwork of Pakistan Social Club Oman, under the leadership of Mohammad Nadeem Azeemi – Chairman, Zahid Shakoor – Vice Chairman, Imran Toor – Finance Director, Kashif Ahmed Zaeem – General Secretary, Mohammad Kaleem Akhtar – Joint Secretary, Shaandar Bokhari – Director, and Mrs. Azra Aleem – Director, along with other committed volunteers whose collective efforts ensured seamless coordination. The valuable support and presence of the Embassy of Pakistan further enhanced the stature and success of the event.

Special appreciation is also extended to Syed Fayyaz Ali Shah, who made exceptional efforts in organizing and coordinating this event. His dedication and active involvement, along with his presence at the venue alongside senior officials of Muscat Nights, played a significant role in the overall success of the program.

Pakistan Social Club Oman gratefully acknowledges the generous support of its sponsors, whose contributions were vital to the success of this prestigious event: Haseena Jewellers – Mega Sponsor, Friendi Mobile – Bronze Sponsor, Ravi Restaurant, Pizza Modo, Riyal Tikka, and Mian Riaz & Partner. Their continued support reflects a strong commitment to promoting cultural activities and community engagement in the Sultanate of Oman.

This Qawwali Night will be remembered as a historic and landmark cultural event in the history of Muscat Nights—celebrating unity, spirituality, and the rich cultural traditions of Pakistan, while strengthening cultural ties between communities in Oman.
