Stadium between Japan and Uzbekistan with the loud noise of the fans chanting for their teams. A large number of spectators came to watch the final.

It sounds like an exhilarating match! Japan must be thrilled to secure the trophy for the second time, especially with such a dramatic goal in the final minutes. The cultural activities before the match must have added to the festive atmosphere. Indeed, the improvement in Asian football is exciting, and it's promising to anticipate future performances from the region's teams.

Fuki Yamada scored the only goal in the 91st minute.

Uzbekistan, despite their good performance remained unlucky after missing the penalty in the
