Doha: The Managing Director of Regency Group Qatar, Ameerudheen Kunhammed, has expressed his deep appreciation for Vijayamanthrangal, the widely followed motivational initiative conceived and presented by renowned author, educator, and media personality Dr.

Amanulla Vadakkangara. Speaking after receiving a copy of the 10th volume of Vijayamanthrangal he noted that Vijayamanthrangal effectively satisfies the needs of all categories of users by being available across multiple platforms. The programme reaches audiences through WhatsApp podcast groups, is telecast daily on Radio Malayalam 98.6 FM, and is also published in book form, ensuring wide accessibility and sustained engagement.

He particularly appreciated the innovative feature of the Vijayamanthrangal book, which carries a QR code enabling readers to listen instantly to the audio version. This seamless integration of print and digital formats, he observed, reflects the contemporary vision and user-friendly approach of the initiative.

Describing Vijayamanthrangal as timely and impactful, he said the series consistently promotes positive thinking, discipline, ethical values, and a purpose-driven lifestyle. He commended Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara for presenting profound life lessons in a simple and relatable manner, making motivation a part of everyday life.

Congratulating the Vijayamanthrangal team and its partners, Ameerudheen Kunhammed expressed confidence that the initiative would continue to inspire individuals and communities across the globe.

The appreciation from the Managing Director of Regency Group Qatar stands as a significant endorsement of Vijayamanthrangal's growing influence as a source of inspiration, character building, and positive social transformation.
