MIRPUR (AJK): Feb 4 : Chairman of the Advisory Council of Tanzeem Jaral Rajput Jammu

& Kashmir, Mirpur Chapter, Commissioner (Retd), State Inland, Revenue Deptt., Zulfiqar Ali Jaral, has said that welfare organizations should play their role in making the backward classes self-sufficient in socio-economic sector.

The performance and welfare projects of Tanzeem Jaral Rajput Mirpur and its welfare organization “Jaral Welfare Foundation” are commendable” he expressed these views while addressing the consultative meeting of Tanzeem Jaral Rajput Mirpur as the chief guest here

Along with supporting intelligent students for educational development, the Mirhor organization has taken a good step by establishing a beauty parlor and training center to make women self-sufficient. The proposed projects of a sewing center for women and an IT center for children are beautiful examples for the society and the tribal people should fully cooperate for these projects.

He also announced to donate three sewing machines and donate Rs. 5,000 per month and stressed the need to establish sector-wise units for data collection and collection of donations. President of Tanzeem Jaral Rajput Mirpur Hafiz Muhammad Maqsood Jaral presided over the meeting and said in his address that self-reliance and educational development are our primary objectives.

A project has been completed to make needy women skilled, while various friends have also announced to donate more than 10 sewing machines for a sewing center, which will be started soon. In addition, projects for an IT center, a rickshaw scheme for unemployed people and an ambulance service for patients are under consideration. He further said that Tanzeem Jaral Rajput Foundation has been registered in Punjab, while the registration process in Azad Kashmir is in the final stages.

After the registration phase in Azad Kashmir is completed, we are determined to start major welfare projects by getting government support. He further said that we have always played a positive role for unity and solidarity in the tribe. He clarified that we had cooperated fully with the previous organization in the wider interest of the tribe and we are also right to expect that by accepting the decision of the 14-member election committee formed by the responsible people of Mirpur, we should also cooperate fully with our organization, which was unanimously selected, in the wider interest of the tribe. He announced to take all the members of the tribe along and give a better position in the organization to the dynamic and active friends who become part of the selected organization. The guest of honor of the meeting and the central secretary general of the organization Jaral Rajput Foundation, Javed Iqbal Jaral, emphasized the need to donate on a monthly basis as per the ability to keep the organization active and assured full cooperation from his side.
