

Monday, February 16th 2026

GLOBAL RYTHAM CULTURAL CLUB LAUDS 'QATAR SPORTS CHRONICLE' PUBLISHED BY MEDIA PLUS

Published on February 15, 2026

Document Date: Mon, Feb 16 2026 01:12:34 am

Category: ,English,Qatar - ,Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

rki.news

Doha: Global Rytham Cultural Club (GRCC) has lauded the Qatar Sports Chronicle, a prestigious sports publication brought out by Media Plus, one of Qatar's leading advertising and event management companies, in connection with Qatar Sports Day 2026.

The appreciation was expressed during a special function held at She Kitchen Restaurant, where members of GRCC formally received copies of the publication and congratulated the Media Plus team for documenting Qatar's remarkable sporting journey.

GRCC President Roshni Krishnan, General Secretary Vinesh Hegde, Media Coordinator Ranjith, and Advisor Zubair Pandavath received the copies of Qatar Sports Chronicle at the gathering. The event was attended by distinguished guests, including cine actor Hariprasanth Varma, along with community figures Ashiq Mahe and Ayshabi.

Speaking on the occasion, GRCC President Roshni Krishnan commended Media Plus for bringing out a publication that captures the spirit, achievements, and global prominence of Qatar in the field of sports. She noted that Qatar Sports Chronicle serves not only as a record of milestones but also as an inspiration for the younger generation to embrace sports and fitness as a way of life.

General Secretary Vinesh Hegde highlighted that Qatar has emerged as a global sporting hub by successfully hosting major international tournaments and consistently promoting grassroots-level sports initiatives. He appreciated the editorial quality, design excellence, and comprehensive coverage featured in the publication.

Media Coordinator Ranjith described the Chronicle as a "valuable collector's edition" that reflects Qatar's unwavering commitment to sports development and infrastructure. Advisor Zubair Pandavath emphasized that such publications strengthen community awareness about the importance of sportsmanship, unity, and healthy living.

The invited guests also congratulated Media Plus for its initiative in publishing a sports-focused chronicle that showcases Qatar's achievements and vision in the sporting arena. They expressed confidence that the book would serve as a proud reference for sports enthusiasts, institutions, and the wider community.

Qatar Sports Chronicle chronicles Qatar's sporting journey, landmark achievements, infrastructure growth, and the country's enduring passion for sports, reaffirming its position as a leading sports destination in the region.

The function concluded with a note of appreciation to Media Plus for its continued contribution to media, publishing, and community engagement initiatives in Qatar.