Doha – Mediaplus, Qatar’s leading advertising and event management company, recently honoured three talented young artists – Able, Vedhika, and Sreemayi – for their outstanding performances at the GRCC Valentine’s Day Hangout last week. All three were guided and mentored by celebrated art teacher and performer Roshni Krishnan.

The felicitation ceremony was held at the Mediaplus office in the presence of key members of the Global Rhythm Cultural Club (GRCC), including President Roshni Krishnan, General Secretary Vinesh Hegde, Media Coordinator Ranjith Chemmad, Advisor Zubair Pandavath, and the proud parents of the performers.

Able and Vedhika were recognized for their captivating live painting session, which mesmerized the audience with creativity, colour sense, and confidence, turning the stage into a vibrant canvas of expression. Sreemayi was honoured for her graceful and confident participation in the event's fashion show segment, impressing both organizers and attendees with her poise and stage presence.

GRCC President Roshni Krishnan praised the young talents for their dedication and courage to perform publicly, emphasizing the importance of platforms that nurture creativity and self-expression. Other GRCC office bearers highlighted the role of family support, timely recognition, and encouragement in shaping confident and skilled young achievers.

Mediaplus CEO Dr. Amanulla Vadakkangara stated that supporting youth talent and community initiatives is part of the company's commitment to cultural development in Qatar, reaffirming its collaboration with organizations like GRCC to provide meaningful platforms for emerging artists.

The ceremony concluded with the presentation of Vijayamanthrangal to the young performers, followed by a group photo session. Mediaplus and GRCC extended best wishes to Able, Vedhika, and Sreemayi for continued success in their artistic journeys, hoping they inspire many more in the years ahead.
