Doha, March 01 (QNA) – The security patrols and emergency teams are consistently deploying to various areas across the nation based on the approved readiness plans to deal with any potential developments, the Ministry of Interior has emphasized.

In a post on the X platform on Sunday, the Ministry stressed that it is essential for people to avoid gathering at assembly points or moving to incident scenes, adding these measures are required to ensure the smooth flow of ambulance vehicles, civil defense units, and security patrols so that they can carry out their duties efficiently and effectively.

The Ministry further underscored the importance of immediately reporting any suspicious objects or unknown remains by calling (999) and never approaching them.
