Doha, March 15 (QNA) – The Ministry of Interior (MOI) affirmed that the security situation in the country is stable, emphasizing the paramount importance of obtaining information from official sources.

It also reiterated the importance of refraining from spreading rumors or disseminating unreliable information.

In a statement Sunday, MOI stressed that it would not hesitate to take legal action against anyone who spreads rumors or deliberately publishes misleading information, affirming that the safety of citizens, residents, and visitors is a top priority.
