Islamabad, March 24 (QNA) – Pakistani Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif announced Tuesday that his country is ready to host negotiations to end the war in the Middle East.

In a post on his official X account, Sharif said: “Pakistan welcomes and fully supports ongoing efforts to pursue dialogue to end the war in Middle East, in the interest of peace and stability in region and beyond. Subject to concurrence by the US and Iran”.

He added: “Pakistan stands ready and honored to be the host to facilitate meaningful and conclusive talks for a comprehensive settlement of the ongoing conflict”
