Doha, April 10 (QNA) – HE Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman bin Jassim Al-Thani held talks on Friday with HE Prime Minister of the United Kingdom Keir Starmer, during his visit to Doha.

The talks focused on the latest regional developments amid the newly announced ceasefire announcement involving the United States and the Islamic Republic of Iran.

They also discussed bilateral relations and ways to enhance cooperation, particularly in the defense and economic fields.

HE Sheikh Mohammed reiterated the State of Qatar's welcome of the ceasefire announcement and stressed the urgent need to build upon it to prevent further escalation in the region.

He emphasized the importance of ensuring the security of maritime routes and the freedom of navigation and international trade in accordance with the rules of international law, which contributes to maintaining the stability of the region and global supply chains.

His Excellency expressed his appreciation for the United Kingdom's support for the State of Qatar and its cooperation in the defense field during the past period.

For his part, HE Starmer reiterated his country's solidarity with the State of Qatar, stressing the need to transform the ceasefire declaration into a permanent agreement that achieves security and stability in the region.
