
Qatar Amir, Sultan of Oman Discuss Regional Developments, De-escalation Efforts

Published on April 16, 2026

Document Date: Thu, Apr 16 2026 07:52:01 pm

Category: ,English, Qatar - , Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

Muscat, April 16 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani and HM Sultan Haitham bin Tariq of the sisterly Sultanate of Oman, discussed developments in the region amid rising regional tensions.

The two sides met at Al Baraka Palace in Muscat, where they exchanged views on current developments, particularly their implications for regional security and stability, as well as their impact on energy supplies and international shipping.

Both leaders stressed the importance of intensifying regional and international efforts to de-escalate tensions and the need to prioritize diplomatic solutions and dialogue to resolve disputes, contributing to regional and international security and stability.

They also emphasized continued coordination and consultation on issues of mutual interest, in addition to the strong fraternal relations between the two countries and ways to further develop them across various fields.

The session was attended by HH Personal Representative of HH the Amir Sheikh Jassim bin Hamad Al-Thani; HE Chief of the Amiri Diwan Abdullah bin Mohammed Al Khulaifi, and HE Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Sultan bin Saad Al Muraikhi, in addition to Their Excellencies senior officials.

From the Omani side, the session was attended by HH Deputy Prime Minister for Defense Affairs Shihab bin Tariq Al Said, HH Deputy Prime Minister for Economic Affairs Theyazin bin Haitham Al Said, and HE Minister of Diwan of Royal Court Khalid bin Hilal Al Busaidi, in addition to Their Excellencies senior Omani officials.

Following the meeting, HH the Amir and HM Sultan of Oman held a bilateral session in which they exchanged views on strengthening cooperation and discussing other matters of mutual interest

