TEHRAN: Iran's Foreign Minister Seyed Abbas Araghchi and Pakistan's Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Ishaq Dar held a telephone conversation on Monday to discuss evolving regional developments and the status of the ceasefire between Iran and the United States.

According to Iran's Foreign Ministry, both sides reviewed diplomatic efforts aimed at sustaining the truce between Tehran and Washington. The discussion also focused on maintaining regional stability and supporting continued dialogue to prevent escalation.

Pakistan reiterated its commitment to diplomatic engagement, emphasizing the importance of peaceful resolution through negotiations.
