Jeddah, April 28 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani affirmed that the GCC consultative summit held in Jeddah on Tuesday embodies a unified Gulf position on the current regional situation.

In a post on his official X account, HH the Amir said the summit underscores the importance of intensifying coordination and consultation among GCC member states.

His Highness added that enhanced cooperation is essential to support GCC's diplomatic efforts, preserve the regional security and stability, and achieve the Gulf peoples' aspirations towards development and prosperity.
