Doha, Qatar – The District 116 Toastmasters Annual Conference (DTAC 2026) is scheduled to take place on May 22 and 23, 2026, at the Pullman Hotel and Resorts, West Bay, Doha.

Organized by District 116 Toastmasters, Qatar, the two-day conference is open to both members and non-members, offering the wider community a valuable opportunity to experience Toastmasters' proven approach to communication and leadership development.

The event will feature an engaging lineup of keynote speakers and professional trainers, alongside interactive workshops designed to enhance public speaking, leadership skills, and self-confidence. Participants can expect practical insights and real-world techniques applicable to both personal and professional growth.

A major highlight of DTAC 2026 will be the district-level speech contests, where top speakers will compete, showcasing excellence in communication and storytelling.

Beyond the educational sessions, the conference will provide extensive networking opportunities, bringing together professionals, students, and aspiring leaders from diverse backgrounds across Qatar.

Aligned with this year's theme, "Echoes of Excellence," DTAC 2026 aims to inspire individuals to discover their voice, lead with confidence, and pursue continuous improvement.

Registrations are now open, with tickets available for both Toastmasters and non-Toastmasters.

Non-members can register through the “Guest Ticket” option available on the registration page.
