Doha, May 26 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani held a phone call on Tuesday with HE President of the Islamic Republic of Iran Dr. Masoud Pezeshkian.

During the call, they discussed the latest developments in the region as well as efforts aimed at de-escalation, safeguarding regional security, and promoting peace and stability.

HH the Amir reaffirmed the State of Qatar’s firm position in favor of political and diplomatic solutions and stressed the need for all parties to exercise the utmost responsibility and restraint to spare the region the consequences of further escalation. His Highness also expressed appreciation to HE the President for the Iranian government's engagement in dialogue and constructive efforts. His Highness also emphasized the importance of peaceful solutions to contain tensions and safeguard regional security and stability, thanking HE the President for his efforts in that regard and calling for continued positive engagement in the negotiations being facilitated by the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, as well as for broader dialogue, particularly with countries in the region. For his part, HE the Iranian President praised HH the Amir's efforts to promote security and stability in the region, expressing his appreciation for His Highness's positions supporting de-escalation, and affirming his welcome and interest in His Highness's proposals on advancing an agreement that would promote regional and international stability
