

NDF honours Kashmir-origin Senior AJK Police Officer Dr. Khalid Chauhan with Distinguished Fellowship at NDF;

Published on June 5, 2026

Document Date: Sat, Jun 13 2026 11:28:20 am

Show on website : Click Here

Rki.news

Altaf Hamid Rao

MIRPUR (AJK): June 5; National Dialogue Forum (NDF) has announced to confer honor to Kashmir origin seasoned bureacrate Dr. Khalid Chauhan, PhD, Additional Inspector General of Police Azad Jammu Kashmir, as a Distinguished Fellow at the National Dialogue Forum (NDF) in honorary capacity, it was officially said.

According to an official statement issued by the NDF, reaching to this APP AJK Correspondent, Dr. Khalid Mahmood Chauhan, currently serving as Additional Inspector General of Police (Addl IGP) Azad Jammu & Kashmir (AJK), is an internationally recognized policy expert, academic, and practitioner in the fields of security governance, prevention of violent extremism (P/CVE), peacebuilding, and rule of law. He previously served as the National Coordinator of the National Counter Terrorism Authority (NACTA), where he played a leading role in shaping Pakistan's National Prevention of Violent Extremism (PVE) Policy and advancing interagency coordination on national security and social cohesion. Over the course of his distinguished career, he has also held senior leadership positions in policing, governance, academia, and international policy engagement, with affiliations including the London School of Economics (LSE), SOAS University of London, Australian National University (ANU), and Simon Fraser University.

We look forward to benefiting from his experience, insights, and leadership as we continue advancing dialogue, peacebuilding, democratic governance, and resilient societies in Pakistan and beyond.