Evian, June 16 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani has said his participation in the Group of Seven (G7) Summit in the French city of Evian provided an important opportunity to discuss pressing international priorities, particularly efforts to promote peace and stability in the Middle East.

In a post published on his official account on the social media platform X on Tuesday, His Highness said the summit allowed leaders to exchange views on urgent global issues, with a focus on strengthening regional security, fostering cooperation and supporting development across the region.

HH the Amir added that the State of Qatar would continue its constructive engagement with international partners in pursuit of a more peaceful and prosperous world.
