Doha, July 30 (QNA) – HE Minister of Interior; Commander of the Internal Security Force

(Lekhwiya); and Chairman of the Supreme Council of the Police Academy, Sheikh Khalifa bin

Hamad bin Khalifa Al-Thani attended Thursday the graduation ceremony for the second cohort of students in the Master of Law and Master of Security Studies programmes at the Police Academy's College of Graduate Studies.

The ceremony also marked the graduation of participants in the 11th mandatory qualifying course for graduates of civilian universities at the Police College, as well as the fourth mandatory qualifying course for female graduates of civilian universities at the Women's Police Institute.

On the margin of the ceremony, HE the Minister honoured the graduates and officially launched the Police Academy's new website as part of ongoing efforts to enhance the academy's digital services and online platforms.

Following the graduation ceremony, HE Sheikh Khalifa bin Hamad bin Khalifa Al-Thani attended the graduation of the sixth group of participants in the seventh edition of the Police of Tomorrow programme (Summer 2026), held at the academy in the presence of senior officials, officers, and the graduates' families.
