Palestinian Prime Minister Mohammad Mustafa and Spain's Foreign Minister Jose Manuel

Albares discussed efforts to halt Israeli aggression in Gaza and achieve a ceasefire. The discussion, held over a phone call today, focused on strengthening relief efforts and delivering aid through Gaza's land crossings. They also emphasized the importance of preventing a potential Israeli ground military invasion in Rafah, south of the Strip. Prime Minister Mustafa urged the European Union to take a clear stance against Israeli actions and expressed gratitude for Spain's recognition of the State of Palestine. He highlighted the need for continued collaborative efforts to secure further recognition from European nations
