

PCB announces invitation to tender for International media rights

Published on June 6, 2024

Document Date: Sat, Apr 11 2026 02:37:32 am

Category: ,English,Snippets,Sports -

Show on website : Click Here

The Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) has released details of its Invitation to Tender (ITT) for International Media Rights, covering broadcast television, digital, audio, web, and mobile platforms for global territories from August 2024 to December 2026.

Interested parties can obtain ITT documentation by emailing pcb.bidding@pcb.com.pk during office hours (9am-5pm Pakistan time) until 1 July 2024. Proposals must be submitted in sealed envelopes by 10 July 2024 at 10.30am (PST).

Technical proposals will be opened on 10 July at 10.30am at the PCB offices. The date for opening financial proposals will be communicated to qualified bidders directly.

From August 2024 to December 2026, Pakistan will host several international cricket matches. The schedule for the Pakistan Men's team is as follows:

2024:

- August: Bangladesh (two Tests)
- October: England (three Tests)

2025:

- January: West Indies (two Tests)
- February: New Zealand and South Africa (ODI tri-series)
- May: Bangladesh (three ODIs, three T20Is)
- August: Afghanistan (three T20Is)
- Sep/Oct: Ireland (three ODIs, three T20Is)
- Oct/Nov: South Africa (two Tests, three ODIs, three T20Is)
- November: Sri Lanka (three ODIs, three T20Is)

2026:

- Feb/Mar: Australia (three T20Is, three ODIs)
- April: Zimbabwe (three ODIs, three T20Is)
- October: Sri Lanka (three T20Is)
- October: England and Sri Lanka (ODI tri-series)
- November: Sri Lanka (two Tests)

Details of women's international matches will be announced in due course.

The courtesy of PCB