Leaders from various Pakistani organizations in Qatar attended the event, highlighting the community's strong support. The collaboration offers special incentives and discounts to POC members worldwide.

President of POCG Qatar, Ikram Butt, urged the large Pakistani community in Qatar, which numbers over 125,000, to invest in real estate projects back home, emphasizing the potential for secure and profitable returns.

The session featured well-known Pakistani TV anchors Shifa Yousefzai and Awais Mangalwala, who not only compered the event but also responded to questions from the attendees, providing valuable insights and engaging discussions.

This event marked a significant step towards encouraging overseas Pakistanis to contribute to their homeland's development
