The Al-Hamba Mango Festival at Souq Waqif is attracting large crowds eager to savor the exquisite taste of Pakistani mangoes and a delightful array of mango-infused products. From refreshing lassi and creamy ice cream to tangy pickle, sweet jam, and flavorful chutney, the festival offers a rich celebration of mango culture that should not be missed.

The festival's success was evident from the very first day, with over 14,000 kilograms of mangoes sold, highlighting the public's enthusiasm for these delightful fruits. With participation from more than 40 companies, the festival showcases an impressive selection of famous Pakistani mango varieties such as Sindhri, Anwar Ratol, Dussehri, Chaunsa, Safaid Chaunsa, and others. This diverse display provides a paradise for mango enthusiasts, giving visitors the chance to indulge in the finest mangoes Pakistan has to offer.

Beyond the mangoes, the festival also features a variety of seasonal fruits, including Falsa, Jamun, apricots, and peaches, adding further diversity to the event. Visitors can also enjoy traditional Pakistani street foods like Gol Gappay, Dahi Bhalla, Bun Kebabs, chaats, and Qulfi, making the festival a true delight for food lovers.

Thousands have flocked to this vibrant celebration of Pakistani culture and culinary delights, making the Al-Hamba Mango Festival a must-visit event. The festivities will continue until the 6th of July, offering ample time for everyone to experience the rich flavors and cultural heritage on display. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to celebrate the king of fruits and indulge in the delectable offerings at the Al-Hamba Mango Festival in Souq Waqif.
