3 July 2024 – Doha, Qatar: – Qatar Career Development Center (QCDC), founded by Qatar

Foundation, has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Retaj Group to establish a framework for collaboration in training and empowering students, youth, and professionals across Qatar.

Mr. Abdulla A. Al-Mansoori, Director of QCDC, and His Excellency Sheikh Naif bin Eid Al Thani, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Retaj Group, signed the MoU at a ceremony held at Retaj Alrayyan hotel in Doha.

The agreement outlines the cooperation between QCDC and Retaj Group to coordinate efforts in highlighting diverse and important career paths and opportunities in the real-estate, hospitality, and tourism sectors. It also includes providing continuous career guidance and development support and services.

Commenting on the collaboration, Mr. Al-Mansoori emphasized the role of leading institutions in the private sector in establishing career culture in the country, stating, “the signing of this MoU reaffirms the joint commitment of QCDC and Retaj Group to provide the best training and educational opportunities for our youth. It underscores our responsibility to highlight the rich and diverse career paths available in the real estate, hospitality, and tourism sectors, which have proven to be strategic and vital in fostering healthy economic diversity in our national economy.”

Al-Mansoori added, “At QCDC, we have always believed in the importance of partnering with prominent private sector institutions like Retaj Group. Private sector is not only vital for its indispensable economic role but also as a fundamental source of expertise and knowledge that the youth of Qatar must draw from. It is part of the process of human capital development.”

His Excellency Sheikh Naif bin Eid Al Thani, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Retaj Group stated, “We are delighted to sign this MoU with QCDC. Through this agreement, Retaj Group aims to enhance its CSR role and play a more significant part in training students through practical programs across our various sectors, including hospitality and real estate.”

Under the MoU, QCDC and Retaj Group will provide job shadowing opportunities for students and youth enrolled in QCDC’s “Little Employee” and “My Career – My Future” programs. This will provide participants with the opportunity to explore, and experience, career paths in real estate, tourism, and hospitality, enabling them to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to pursue these careers. Additionally, QCDC will provide comprehensive access to the “Al-Dileela” career advising program.

This collaboration represents a new milestone in strengthening the ties between QCDC and leading public and private sector institutions, highlighting the importance of such partnerships in driving sustainable economic and human development. Through their joint efforts, QCDC and Retaj Group are committed to creating a supportive environment that enables individuals to achieve their career aspirations and adapt to the rapid changes in the local and global job markets.
