Gaza, July 03 (QNA)– The Ministry of Health in the Gaza Strip announced Wednesday that the death toll from the ongoing Israeli aggression against the Strip has risen to 37,953 martyrs and 87,266 injured.

In a statement, the ministry indicated that the Israeli occupation forces committed 3 massacres against the families in the Gaza Strip during the past 24 hours, resulting in 28 martyrs and 125 injured.

The ministry indicated that several victims are still under the rubble and on roads, while medical and civil defense personnel could not reach them.

The occupation aircraft and artillery continued their strikes and violent bombardment today in various parts of the Gaza Strip, targeting homes, displaced persons' gatherings, and streets, leading to dozens of martyrs and wounded.

Since Wednesday morning, occupation artillery has been shelling the northeastern areas of Jabalia camp in the vicinity of Hamouda Roundabout and Qalibu Hill, and the occupation fired lighting bombs at dawn today at the Al Fukhari area, east of Khan Younis.

The occupation forces opened heavy fire in eastern Gaza, coinciding with continued artillery shelling on multiple areas in Al-Shuja'iyah neighborhood.
